A person may speak on any subject regarding the city and municipal government, but may not address the same issue more than once every four weeks, nor may any individual or group speak on the same topic more than two (2) times. No person shall address the council without first being recognized by the presiding officer. Each person addressing the council shall step up to the place provided for use by the public and state their name and address for the record, speak in an audible tone of voice, state the subject the person wishes to discuss, state whom the person is representing if the person represents an organization or other persons, and shall limit the remarks to five (5) minutes unless further time is granted by majority vote of the council.

Without the necessity of making a prior request, any interested person may address the council in regard to a public hearing on a particular matter, subject to the discretion of the presiding officer, and so long as the comments are relevant to the subject under consideration. After a motion has been made or a public hearing has been closed, no member of the public shall address the council on the matter under consideration without approval of a majority of the council. The city clerk shall provide a copy of rules to each person on the agenda. Anyone addressing the Council, who wishes to read from a written document, letter, petition, etc., shall provide a copy of the same to the Mayor, Council and City Clerk no later than the work session immediately prior to the City Council meeting.

If such conduct continues, the presiding officer may order the person barred from further addressing the council for that meeting. All persons shall be silent at the request of the presiding officer. If a person persists in disturbing the meeting after a warning, the presiding officer may order that person to leave the meeting. If the person does not comply with the order and leave the meeting, the presiding officer may order the sergeant-at-arms to remove said person. At least one (1) uniformed police officer shall be designated by the police chief to attend each council meeting. Such officer shall act as the sergeant-at-arms and shall carry out all orders and instructions given by the presiding officer to maintain order and decorum. Any council member may move to require the presiding officer to enforce the rules of decorum. The affirmative vote of a majority shall require him to do so. If a meeting is willfully disturbed by a person or group of persons so as to render the orderly conduct of such meeting unfeasible and when order cannot be restored by the removal of individuals who are creating the disturbance the meeting may be adjourned by the presiding officer and the remaining business conducted at the next regular meeting.
